

Read What Certain Advertising Agents of Undoubted
Probity Have Certified to:
THAT THE "WORLD" OF "WOLDS"
PRINTED DAILY FROM JAN. 1 TO APRIL 30, 1888, WAS
288,970 COPIES!
GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., JNO. P. PHILLIPS & CO.,
J. H. CRICKSON, DAUGHTY & CO.,
GOODRICH & HULL,
The Attest of These Gentlemen
Cannot Be Questioned!

PRICE ONE CENT.

MACBETH'S DERBY.

He Wins the Big Kentucky Race for the Chicago Stable.

The Favorite, Gallifet, Second and White Third.

Run in the Presence of 10,000 People Over a Dusty Track.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
LOUISVILLE, May 14.—This is the first day of the spring meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club and known from one end of the country to the other as "Derby Day." The weather is very cold and windy and the track deep in dust, the last rain being of short duration. The attendance, as usual, is very large but with the exception of a few who are interested in the Kentucky Derby, it is not as great as heretofore, which is partially attributed to the fact that each of the great Western racing centres, now have their own derby. There is even a Kentucky Derby to be run at Louisville on May 26, the St. Louis Derby run at St. Louis on the same date, and the American Derby, run at Washington, on June 22. There is even a Kentucky Derby to be run at Louisville on May 26, the St. Louis Derby run at St. Louis on the same date, and the American Derby, run at Washington, on June 22. There is even a Kentucky Derby to be run at Louisville on May 26, the St. Louis Derby run at St. Louis on the same date, and the American Derby, run at Washington, on June 22.

Year	Winner	No. of starters	Price
1876	Arcturion	15	2-3/4
1877	Verona	11	2-3/4
1878	Day Star	9	2-3/4
1879	Day Star	9	2-3/4
1880	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1881	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1882	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1883	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1884	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1885	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1886	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1887	Yonah	8	2-3/4
1888	Yonah	8	2-3/4

The present Kentucky Derby closed for yearlings in the morning and evening, of which the following were starters:

J. T. Clay's ch. c. The Cavalier, by Prince Charlie, 125.
D. Gibson's ch. c. Antenor, by Prince Charlie, 115.
Melbourne Stable's ch. c. Gallifet, by Prince Charlie, 115.
Melbourne Stable's ch. c. Alexandria, by Prince Charlie, 115.
G. M. Sully's ch. c. Col. Zed, by Prince Charlie, 115.
W. O. Sully's ch. c. White, by Prince Charlie, 115.
Chicago Stable's ch. c. Macbeth, by Prince Charlie, 115.

The pool-selling this morning opened at the Melbourne Stable's pair selling for $50, against which The Cavalier brought $25, Macbeth $15, White $10, and the other horses $5 each. The race was fixed to be run at 2:30 p. m., at which time there was a heavy shower of rain, and the track was very muddy. The race was a dash of five furlongs, for two-year-olds, at $15, under the scale; those having started and not run second in a stake of $100 and $50, and those having started and not run third in a stake of $50. The race was a dash of five furlongs, for two-year-olds, at $15, under the scale; those having started and not run second in a stake of $100 and $50, and those having started and not run third in a stake of $50.

RUCTION AT CLIFTON.

The Starter, Gabe Caldwell, Assailed for Making a Bad Start.

CLIFTON RACE TRACK, N. J., May 14.—This is the twenty-second day of the spring meeting here, and the last until Memorial Day, when the summer meeting begins. The day is cold and threatening, but the track is in fine condition. The attendance is large and the racing very exciting. The first race was a dash of five furlongs, for two-year-olds, at $15, under the scale; those having started and not run second in a stake of $100 and $50, and those having started and not run third in a stake of $50.

First Race.—Purse $500, for all ages, entrance money to the second. The race was a dash of five furlongs, for two-year-olds, at $15, under the scale; those having started and not run second in a stake of $100 and $50, and those having started and not run third in a stake of $50.

Second Race.—Purse $500, for all ages, entrance money to the second. The race was a dash of five furlongs, for two-year-olds, at $15, under the scale; those having started and not run second in a stake of $100 and $50, and those having started and not run third in a stake of $50.

HIS DEATH A MYSTERY.

CORONER LEVY'S INQUEST CONTINUED TO-DAY.

Where Was Mr. Ferris at the Time Hatch Entered the Scofield House?—Mrs. Scofield Called to Court To-day in a Suit to Recover Money Paid for Boarding.

The 800 people who crowded into and around the approaches of City Hall chambers at noon to-day to hear the investigation as to the death of F. H. Hatch, looked with special interest at the stout, gray-haired man with long flowing beard and mustache who came in with Mrs. Scofield.

The man was "Brother-in-law" David C. Ferris, the rich mining speculator, of 18 Broadway, from whose office Broker Hatch and Mrs. Scofield walked uptown on that fatal Monday week ago.

Though it is now known that Ferris is perhaps the one man alive most likely to know how Broker Hatch came to be lying dead and mangled in the yard of 64 West Twentieth street, he has until to-day affected an utter ignorance of what happened at Mrs. Fanny's and at the house.

He told the police the day after the tragedy that he stayed at Mrs. Fanny's only a few minutes and then went home. But Detective Edward A. Clark, the Coleman man, who is supposed to have thrown a new and startling light on the case.

He says that at about 8.30 on Monday night Ferris came to the hotel in a state of great excitement and told him he was a detective and wanted to see him. He took the detective to Mrs. Fanny's and showed him the body of the man who was lying dead and mangled in the yard of 64 West Twentieth street.

Ferris then left the detective, who carried out the instructions and afterwards reported to the coroner. It is suspected that Ferris, either impelled by jealousy or acting a part in some plot against Hatch, looked about the house and saw the couple entered, and that he may have some knowledge about the latter's death.

Coroner Levy determined to sift the matter to the bottom and took the precaution of having a witness on Mr. Ferris early this morning at his house.

Charles W. Scofield, the willingly injured husband in the case, was brought down by the coroner's men in a carriage from the house where he has resided since the last three days.

There was a delay of twenty minutes, owing to the non-arrival of Judge Bischoff, who was expected to preside at the inquest. The coroner then adjourned until 10 o'clock, when the inquest was resumed.

When the coroner got through with the technical questions, the five jurymen who have made themselves so prominent again in the case, were called in by the coroner. Mrs. Scofield bore with them patiently for some time, but at last a question as to her relations with Mr. Ferris caused her to break forth in anger and indignation.

At the suggestion of the coroner the jury then went uptown in charge of Officer Cook to view the body of the man who was lying dead and mangled in the yard of 64 West Twentieth street.

During the recess of the court Coroner Levy placed David C. Ferris in custody. He was taken to the police station, where he was held until the next morning, when he was brought back to the court.

Mr. Ferris was called to the stand. He gave his name as David C. Ferris, of 18 Broadway, and said he was a mining speculator. He was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law.

He said he had been on friendly terms with Mr. Hatch, but that he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law. He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law.

He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law. He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law. He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law.

He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law. He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law. He said he had never seen him since he was introduced to him as Mrs. Scofield's brother-in-law.

PITTSBURG BEATEN.

Boston Leaves the Natural Gas City for Chicago.

What! Pitcher Clarkson Fined $25 by Manager Morrill?

Pittsburg - - - - - 1
Boston - - - - - 3

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BALL GROUND, PITTSBURG, May 14.—The badly crippled New York team met the Chicago team in the last game of the series this afternoon.

O'Rourke and Ward were lame and the team was minus the services of Tierson, who was called away during the morning by a telegram from Trenton, N. J., announcing the death of his brother.

The day was cloudy and raw with an occasional drizzle. Welch and O'Rourke were the battery for the New Yorks, and Krock and Flint for the Chicago.

The batting order was as follows:
NEW YORK: Farrell, c. f.; Sullivan, i. f.; Pettit, i. f.; Anson, i. f.; Krock, p. CHICAGO: Gore, c. f.; Sullivan, i. f.; Pettit, i. f.; Anson, i. f.; Krock, p.

Farrell drove the first ball pitched in a long time through left field for a home run. Sullivan went out on a grounder to Richardson. Pettit's not grounder was seized to first by Ward. Anson drove a grounder to Ward, who made a beautiful throw to first, which was snuffed by Connor.

Anson reached the bag safely, but was left out of the swing field by Connor. One run. Second inning—O'Rourke popped up a soft ball which fell into Krock's hands. Ward's home run was caught by Krock. Krock was out. Ward was out. Krock was out.

Third inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Fourth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Fifth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Sixth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Seventh inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Eighth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Ninth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Tenth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Eleventh inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

ANSON'S BAD MEN.

They Defeated the Giants in the Last of the Series.

Our Crippled Nine Will Now Jump Down to Pittsburg.

New York - - - - - 1
Chicago - - - - - 5

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BALL GROUND, CHICAGO, May 14.—The badly crippled New York team met the Chicago team in the last game of the series this afternoon.

O'Rourke and Ward were lame and the team was minus the services of Tierson, who was called away during the morning by a telegram from Trenton, N. J., announcing the death of his brother.

The day was cloudy and raw with an occasional drizzle. Welch and O'Rourke were the battery for the New Yorks, and Krock and Flint for the Chicago.

The batting order was as follows:
NEW YORK: Farrell, c. f.; Sullivan, i. f.; Pettit, i. f.; Anson, i. f.; Krock, p. CHICAGO: Gore, c. f.; Sullivan, i. f.; Pettit, i. f.; Anson, i. f.; Krock, p.

Farrell drove the first ball pitched in a long time through left field for a home run. Sullivan went out on a grounder to Richardson. Pettit's not grounder was seized to first by Ward. Anson drove a grounder to Ward, who made a beautiful throw to first, which was snuffed by Connor.

Anson reached the bag safely, but was left out of the swing field by Connor. One run. Second inning—O'Rourke popped up a soft ball which fell into Krock's hands. Ward's home run was caught by Krock. Krock was out. Ward was out. Krock was out.

Third inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Fourth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Fifth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Sixth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Seventh inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Eighth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Ninth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Tenth inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

Eleventh inning—Farrell struck out. Gore was out. Sullivan was out. Pettit was out. Anson was out. Krock was out. Ward was out. Connor was out.

BASEBALL EXTRA

BRIDEGROOMS WIN.

Cleveland Plays a Good Game with the Brooklynites.

A Cold, Raw Day, with Very Few Spectators in Attendance.

Brooklyn - - - - - 7
Cleveland - - - - - 3

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
CLEVELAND, May 14.—A cold, light rain has been falling most of the day, so there was not a large crowd to see the Bridgrooms meet Jimmy Williams' nine at the park this afternoon.

Caruthers and Boshough did the shuttle-work for Brooklyn, while Crowl and Snyder were in the lineup for the home team.

Owing to the imperfect telegraph facilities furnished by the Western Union Telegraph Company it will be impossible to get a detailed story of the game to The Evening World to-day.

The game was called at the end of the fifth inning on account of rain.

Brooklyn—Bash, 1st; errors, 2. Cleveland—Bash, 1st; errors, 2.

Score by innings:
Cleveland..... 3 0 0 2 1 0
Brooklyn..... 0 0 0 2 1 0

FIFTY-SIX PERSONS WERE PRESENT.

Indianapolis and Washington Play a Cold Game To-day.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BALL GROUND, INDIANAPOLIS, May 14.—Seven ladies, warmly bundled in the heaviest of heavy winter wraps, about thirty-five season-ticket holders in ulsters and ear-muffs, a sprinkling of small boys on the bleachers and John Healy's yellow dog witnessed the game to-day, the ravens of the season.

A strong Chicago blizzard came down from the northwest, probably sent by Papa Amen to keep Gleebeck from playing his first League game.

The poor fellows in the press-box in spring overcoats and yellow kids shivered and shook, while the official scorer, Col. O. Romeo Johnson, was narrowly prevented from freezing to death through this morning that there had been no serious game.

Previous to the game a foot-race was run, on a wager between Shreve, of the home team, and a local sportsman. It was a distance of one hundred yards, and Shreve won by twenty-five yards without exertion. Our distinguished friend, William O'Rourke, who had been in the city for some time, and was greeted in a cordial manner by the fifty-six people present.

The following teams were presented, the batting order being:
Indianapolis—Hines, c. f.; Myers, c. f.; Denny, c. f.; Sullivan, i. f.; Pettit, i. f.; Anson, i. f.; Krock, p. Washington—Hines, c. f.; Myers, c. f.; Denny, c. f.; Sullivan, i. f.; Pettit, i. f.; Anson, i. f.; Krock, p.

Score by innings:
Indianapolis..... 0 0 1 0 1 1
Washington..... 0 0 0 0 1 1